Volume 22
Issue 9

Now Hear This

Golf Outing September 17, 2015 Knolls West CC 1 PM (Shotgun). Your Help is needed. This is the main fundraiser for our council. Funds collected here help support our disabled veterans, people with disabilities, women's shelters and health, local youth activities, school-graduation programs, local-food shelters and many more programs. We offer a variety of ways you can help. See our included Sponsorship and Registration form; or go to our Golf website at WWW.STPHILIPSKOFCGOLF.COM. Your donation will be going to a great cause.

I am asking you to renew your dedication to the Knights of Columbus by attending meetings and helping me guide this council. No suggestions will be ignored, and all interests will be taken into consideration.

As we settle back in to our normal routine after the summer vacation, I would like to remind everyone that meetings are the First and Third Wednesday of each month. Brother Michael Cervine has been hard at work this summer creating our new website. WWW.KOFC11671.ORG Of particular importance is a new banner feature that vital quick messages will be displayed such as: next meeting dates, special events and inclement weather cancellation notice. Thanks Mike. Come out to a meeting, help grow this council and be part of something great.

May GOD Bless each of you and THANK YOU.

In Service to One, In Service to ALL

Rich Donkersloot

Dues: Just a reminder to keep your dues current. Our council must pay your dues even if you don't. We offer many programs for our disabled, and brothers who need a little support. Contact Rich Donkersloot for more information (973) 650-3327.

Knight of the Month

Brian Kulesa and Robert Martin;
These two brothers worked tirelessly on creating a golf outing. Their organizational skills and execution are outstanding. Next time you see these two give them a great big THANK YOU !!!

Family of the Month

The St. Philip Parish Family: In so many ways we have benefited from the support of many of our parishioners. This would include the wives of Brothers Knights who have encouraged them to join and be active members in our Council. They also come and support our many events and functions in force and are proud of all that we do in and around the Parish and community. These unsung supporters of our Council are Hero's to all of us for their unfailing support and kind words of encouragement. THANK YOU !!!
