Grand Knight's Report

October is Pro-LIFE month!

Naming a month for a historical event, a birthday or in remembrance of an important person or event is common in our day. October being named as Pro-LIFE month then becomes an opportunity for us to celebrate the efforts of so many who cherish LIFE, especially those who do the heavy lifting on such an important matter that affects ALL of us.

In fact we should honor those who walk among us by celebrating their very efforts that preserve LIFE. Some of these people are low key and go about their efforts with little fanfare. Others are able to generate much interest and funds and are well known and are commonly seen on the news. They are spoken about for these very honorable efforts to not only protect LIFE but to promote its' defense.

In the end, it comes down to the common person to breathe new life into this effort so that it gains a renewed life every so often. As one might expect, your average person might tire of the usual and at times it becomes what is known as white noise. Well, it is a noise that we must turn the volume up on. It must be heard by all, but not in a loud and brash manner. It must be done in a way that we draw the listener in, asking them to take an interest and too also look much closer at what we see.

We hope that the efforts of so many will bring a new and renewed interest in supporting those in our community whose labors bring focus on the preservation of LIFE. May we always appreciate and enjoy our lives and good health that we might enjoy.

We have some of the finest examples just an arms length away. Please reach out to them, support them and thank them. People like Kathy DiFiore and staff from Several Sources and all who labor to secure the Ultrasound units that help families choose to keep their babies. These efforts are directly tied to our major efforts to defend and promote the faith.

We all know the joy of family and friends. Our children are the center of many if not all of our efforts. We go to work so they have a better life than we did, just like our parents have done for us. If anyone is ever in trouble or in crisis, just recall how a baby made you just stop and wonder and their perfect little fingers. How they smile back at us. How they just want to be loved and cared for.

Yes, they are babies and we need to insure that all know that they need to not only be defended but promoted in all of our lives. They are the wonderful little ones that will bring hope and joy to many and the leaders of this world when we are gone.

Speak clear, speak loud... So All can Hear and Know that the Knights will "Proclaim and Defend our Faith".

"We Bear His Name, We Carry His Cross"

In Service to One, In Service to ALL

I remain always your humble servant.
